

The Green Family Art Foundation is pleased to present Considering Female Abstractions, a group show featuring abstract works by 16 cutting edge female artists. The works in the exhibition convey bold and brave color and line through a strong feminist lens. However, they do so using a complex methodology which utilizes flowing sinews and shapes that are simultaneously sharp, jagged, and smoothly curvilinear. Considering Female Abstractions opens in the Spotlight Gallery on February 11, 2023 and remains on view until May 21, 2023.

Artists include:

Alicia Adamerovich	Andrea Marie Breiling	Yuan Fang	Cassidy Putnam
Alia Ahmad	Grace Carney	Leelee Kimmel	Ilana Savdie
Kate Barbee	Li Hei Di	Shara Mays	Austyn Weiner
Brianna Bass	Maryam Eivazi	Francesca Mollett	Michaela Yearwood-Dan

A text by Darryl Ratcliff accompanies the exhibition.

About Darryl Ratcliff:

Darryl Ratcliff is an award-winning artist and poet with a writing and curatorial practice based in Dallas, TX whose work engages communities and mobilizes social issues.
